

1. The website name will be AMBIT.

2. AMBIT is a company that was started a few years ago and manages other small companies tech needs. Its going to have information on what the company does. Its going to have information about the people that works for AMBIT. Its going to have resource page for the different programs that we use. Its going to have links to social media account page. It will keep you up to-date on lates updates

3. It will have Home, About us, contact us, News, Log in.

4.the website will store text and image files. we will be storing account names and password, and Admin accounts.